

Due to a very popular hotel choice this year, the Savannah Marriott Riverfront is completely booked for Friday and Saturday nights (May 3, 4). All of our reserved rooms are booked and the rest of the hotel is also booked. The Savannah Marriott Riverfront does have a few remaining rooms reserved for NAPSW (about 15 rooms) on Wednesday and Thursday nights at the rate of $205/night.

We encourage you to check online hotel sites to find a nearby alternative (for example trivago.com, hotels.com, expedia.com, booking.com) – and hope you might enjoy seeing more of the city as you come and go from the conference. Through the last 10 years attending the NAPSW conferences, I often have stayed at an outside hotel and loved the experience. Below is a list of nearby hotels, distances to the Savannah Marriott Riverfront, and advertised rates from online reservation companies as of 3/26/19.
